We have read with interest the above letter and would appreciate knowing the identities of Americans attending this conference and the contents of the position paper on amnesty.

We, of course, would also be interested in learning about the involvement of any foreign countries or foreign subversive organizations and their influence on American deserter-draft resister groups and individuals.

The following information has been received from the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Intelligence, Headquarters, United States Army, Europe: (S)(u) 3-1

A small group of individuals affiliated with "Newsreel" in Frankfurt, Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), held a "GI Summit Conference" at the Club Voltaire in Frankfurt on May 24, 1970. Mike Vale was among them.
A limited number of American servicemen also attended. (S)(u) 5-1

The main purpose of this meeting was to bring together dissident American soldiers from various parts of the FRG in order to organize them on a wide geographic basis. Discussions to this end lasted throughout most of the afternoon. The principal conclusion to which the meeting came was to publish a newsletter to contain news items contributed by American soldiers in the FRG and items from the so-called "underground" press. (S)(u) 5-1

One of the servicemen present recommended demonstrations and bombings of Post Exchanges and other facilities in order to attract attention to the soldiers'
"plight." This received little support from the "Newsreel" members, since violence is counter to their philosophy. (S)(u) 5-1

Michael Charles Vale expressed the opinion on June 5, 1970, that a "GI Summit Conference" which had been held in Copenhagen, Denmark, on the week-end of May 30-31, 1970, was a big success. As a result of this conference, the American Deserters Committee in Copenhagen will review leftist newspapers for relevant articles which "Newsreel" can include in its new publication to be called "The Next Stop." (S)(u) 5-1

A group of primarily American citizens in Frankfurt/Main, Federal Republic of Germany (FRG), generally referred to as "Newsreel", are engaged in the showing of films produced by Newsreel, Inc. in the United States and the operation of a GI coffee-house in Frankfurt/Main, where so-called "underground GI films" are shown. (S-1)(u)

In connection with channelizing information regarding this group, reports were received regarding one [redacted] being associated with it. Since the middle of November, 1969, an individual who was known as [REDACTED] and also as [REDACTED] was noted as a member of the "Newsreel" group and appeared to be one of the leaders in it. The true identity of [REDACTED] could not be determined, however, for some time. (S)(u) S-1

On February 13, 1970, local police authorities in Frankfurt/Main detained [REDACTED] for handing out unsigned leaflets in front of a U. S. Army barracks. He was released the same day, but identifying data from his documents was recorded. (S)(u) S-1

[REDACTED] was born [REDACTED] and reportedly was known previously in France under the name [REDACTED]. NEWS FLASH

In May of 1969, Alan McEachan, the Minister of Manpower and Immigration made a statement to the effect that deserters applying for Landed Immigrant Status will now be treated as normal applicants and that having deserted will not be held against the individual. In practice this has meant that deserters are now, in fact, getting landed status in Canada as long as they otherwise qualify for immigration. As always, it is advisable to enter Canada as a visitor and then get in contact with one of the groups listed here.

DATE OF REVIEW OADR

Source, a member of Los Angeles area Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (See Appendix), attended a regional conference of SDS, October 18 - 20, 1968, at California State College, Los Angeles (CSCLA). The estimated attendance was 150 to 180 members of SDS, most of whom were college students between 18 and 22 years of age. Source furnished the following information concerning the conference:

OPENING SESSION

CLASS. & EXT. BY 2338 JAC/lhs REASON - FCIM 11, 1-2.4.2
DATE OF REVIEW 10/25/88

The Opening Session began on Friday, evening October 18, and was held in Lecture Hall, Number 2, North Hall on the campus at CSCLA. A small rental fee was paid to CSCLA for use of the Lecture Hall.

During the course of the conference, several national and regional SDS leaders gave speeches. The main points on which these speakers dwelled were that the upcoming presidential election is a fraud, that SDS members should get out in the streets and demonstrate rather than vote and that SDS members throughout the nation should strive to have College Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC Training Programs) abolished.

The Opening Speaker at this session was [REDACTED] presented a report on the National Interim Council (NIC) meeting held at Boulder, Colorado, October 11 to 14, 1968. [REDACTED] said that all SDS chapters should make plans to hold demonstrations on Tuesday, November 5, 1968, to show their protest against the present election system.
